WINDSOR-SEVERANCE
LIBRARY DISTRICT

I had an idea to staple my brother's hair to his pillow.

I am not allowed
to use the stapler
anymore.

I had an idea to glue my brother's bunny slippers to the floor.

I am not allowed
to use the glue anymore.

I had an idea to tell
my brother he'd soon
be eaten by hyenas.

I am not allowed to tell my brother's fortune anymore.

I had an idea
to walk backward
all the way to school.

SCHOOL

15
MPH

I am not allowed
to walk backward
to school anymore.

I had an idea to do my George Washington report
on beavers instead.

I am not allowed to do reports
on beavers anymore.

TO ALL BEAVERS
THAT EVER LIVED

beaver bill

See me after
class !!

beavers ate my
homework

I had an idea
to dedicate
my report
to all beavers
that ever lived.

I am not allowed
to dedicate my
report to beavers
anymore.

I had an idea to tell the class
I personally owned a hundred beavers.

I don't own beavers. I don't don't own any beavers. No beavers.

I'm not allowed to say that I own beavers anymore.

No beavers! Actually, I don't own them.

wish I owned beavers but

Nope

I had an idea to show Joey Whipple my underpants.

I am not allowed to show Joey Whipple my underpants anymore.

I had an idea to set Joey Whipples shoe on fire using the sun and a magnifying glass.

to set
Joey Whipple
on fire
anymore.

I had an idea to walk backward
all the way home from school.

I am not allowed to
walk backward home
from school anymore.

A young boy with blonde hair is shown in profile, looking through a magnifying glass. The magnifying glass is held over a white ice cube that has a dead fly frozen inside it. The boy's mouth is open in a gasp. To the left, a blue ice cube tray is visible, and a green plastic strainer sits on the surface below. A dashed line connects the text to the fly in the ice cube. The background is a bright yellow wash.

I had an idea
to freeze a dead fly in
the ice cube
tray.

I am not allowed
to make ice anymore.

I had an idea
to wash my hands
in the dog's bowl
before dinner.

I am not allowed
to wash my hands in
the dog's bowl anymore.

I had an idea to give my brother the gift of cauliflower.

I am not allowed to give the gift of cauliflower anymore.

NET WT. 6 OZ. (1LB.)

I had an idea to tell the sad story
of a mother who fell into a volcano.

I am not allowed to
tell sad stories about
volcanoes anymore.

I had an idea to pretend I'd been struck deaf when I heard "Go to your room!"

I am not allowed
to pretend I've been struck deaf anymore.

NOT

PRETEND

DEAF

ANYMORE (AGAIN)

I had an idea that I might run away to live with the kind and happy beavers.

I am not allowed to talk (even a little bit)
about beavers
anymore.

I had an idea
to say the opposite of what I mean
to trick
everyone.

I am allowed to
say the opposite
of what I mean
forevermore.
